

Four Flushing Cheap Skate

Key: A

Simon Timperley

12 bar in Bm, very similar to "Messin' with the kid" but halt time feel (like Police "Roxanne"). Stop before last line then riff.
Riff is different but familiar

B A E Eb D C D E D C B A > Bm etc

Intro

12 bars

Verse 1

You're selling me short, you're telling me lies
You're wearin' a smile but it's a thin disguise
You know I trusted you - but not any more
You're a four flushing cheap skate,
It's time to even the score

Verse 2

You threatened to leave me, I threatened to sue,
You say that I'm old hat but baby what's new?
You know I trusted you - but not any more
You're a four flushing cheap skate,
It's time to even the score

Instrumental

12 bars

Verse 3

You play a close game with your poker face
But you're raisin' the limits, you're a big disgrace
You know I trusted you - but not any more
You're a four flushing cheap skate,
It's time to even the score

Instrumental

Coda

You're a four flushing cheap skate,
It's time to even the score
You're a four flushing cheap skate,
It's time to even the score

Order: intro, instrumental, verses, solos, etc etc, last line and riff repeated.
