

Six Pint Personality

Key: A

Single Doubt

(c) John Wortley 2004

Intro

Gm / C / Dm / Dm / Gm / C / A7 / A7

Verse 1

Gm

She's got her evening classes,

C Dm

TV soap and bingo nights,

Gm

Wearing reading glasses,

C Dm

Miniskirt and fishnet tights,

Gm C

She don't care for independence,

Dm

She don't mind if the weather's bad,

Gm C

Never seen her very happy,

Dm D7

Never very sad,

Chorus

Gm C

She's got a six pint personality,

F

But legs that reach the moon,

Gm C

And she don't know what time it is,

A7

But she's gonna find out soon.

Verse 2

(second verse has same chords as first verse)

Gm

Yeah, well she's booked a ride to anywhere,

C Dm

And taken it,

Dm

She very rarely questions things,

Gm C

And only then a little bit,

Dm

So days turn into weeks turn into months turn into ages,

Gm C

And all the latest news consists of

A7

Empty pages,

Chorus

Gm C

She's got a six pint personality,

F

But legs that reach the moon,

Gm C

And she don't know what time it is,

A7

But she's gonna find out soon.

Verse 3

Gm C Dm

You know I only really knew her for a day or two,

Or maybe three,

Gm C

Couldn't take a second more,

Dm D7

You see,

Gm C

Because I got to know her inside out in,

Dm

20 seconds less,

Gm C

Than the time it took her,

Dm D7

To undress,

Outro

Gm C

She's got a six pint personality,

F

But legs that reach the moon,

Gm C

Yeah, a six pint personality,

F

She's gonna find out soon,

Gm C

Yeah, a six pint personality,

F

Will someone tell me how,

Gm C

She never knew what time it was,

A7

Perhaps she's found out now?
